

Moles
Sophomore Book Report 3
Great Biographies
Due: First Friday in November

Name:

Period:

Date:

E-mail:

Part I: Book Information

For this section you will need to get the information on the book needed for an MLA work cited reference and assembled it as it would appear in a MLA work cited reference page for a research paper in the space below. Go to class web site if you have forgotten how to do this.

Part II: Socially Relevant

Each person listed has made considerable contribution to American society both during their lifetime and for you today. In a paragraph not more than two, choose one part of this persons biography that is as relevant today as it was when the individual lived.

Part III: Chronology

Create a diagram that depicts the major events in this person's life in a chronological manner. Do not exceed this page.

Part V: Literary Elements

Choose one of the following literary elements and explain how it might be exemplary of the life of the person's biography you have just read. The answer should not exceed this page and must include at least two quotes from the story.

Metaphorical

ironic

satirical

paradox

hyperbole

foreshadowing

Part IV: Determining the Author's Tone

In a paragraph not more than this page determine the tone of the piece. Ask yourself how subjectively the author approached the life they are writing about? How much was romanticized and how much is fact? Provide specific details and at least two specific quotes from the story as evidence for your claim. Persuade me that you are correct.